Apartment Therapy Media (AT Media), the publisher behind beloved brands like Apartment Therapy, The Kitchn, Cubby, and Dorm Therapy, is known for helping people live better at home. With a commitment to high-quality content and an excellent user experience, AT Media was ready to take its ad stack to the next level.

With 20+ monetization partners and a lean engineering team, the AT Media yield team needed a smarter, faster way to manage programmatic operations. Assertive Yield stepped in with its Yield Manager, AY Prebid Server, AI Dynamic Flooring, AI Traffic Shaping, and Yield Intelligence to help them modernize their stack, streamline operations, and gain full visibility into ad performance, all while driving measurable revenue growth.

The Challenges: Modernizing the Stack Without Overloading the Team

AT Media's existing setup was functional but limited. Their lean engineering team was burdened by frequent manual changes, which slowed down progress and made it difficult to scale experimentation. As a future-focused publisher, AT Media was ready to level up its ad stack:

- Ad Stack Modernization:

Needed to upgrade tooling with advanced solutions like Yield Manager, AY Prebid Server, AI Dynamic Flooring, and AI Traffic Shaping, while centralizing experimentation and cross-stack optimization.

- Flexibility & Granularity:

Needed a single source of truth with accurate, granular data and personalized logic, combining the flexibility of an in-house setup with the advanced capabilities of a SaaS platform to drive revenue gains across product, content, and layout monetization.

- Resource Optimization:

With a lean team and 20+ partners to manage, AT Media needed to shift engineering focus to core product innovation. But constant manual changes to the ad stack slowed progress. They sought a solution that would empower their yield team to act more independently and swiftly.

The Solutions –One Platform, Full-Stack Control with Zero Engineering Drag

Assertive Yield empowered AT Media to modernize their stack, streamline operations, and confidently act on data-driven insights, without increasing engineering overhead:

1. Ad Stack Modernization Delivered:

With Yield Manager, AT Media adopted advanced capabilities like AY Prebid Server, AI Dynamic Flooring, and AI Traffic Shaping within one centralized platform. This enabled agile testing and optimization across their stack, without disrupting core operations.

2. Granular Insights, Confident Decisions:

Yield Intelligence gave AT Media the clarity they needed, accurate, granular data broken down by layout, content, and product performance. This helped teams make faster, more confident decisions and understand the true impact of changes on both revenue and user experience.

3. Greater Agility:

The platform gave programmatic leads full control over bidder setup, testing, and adjustments, reducing dependence on engineering. This freed up dev resources to focus on product innovation, while the revenue team operated at speed, managing 20+ partners with ease.

"Assertive Yield's technology has been a game changer for us. Their advanced analytics and wrapper solutions have enabled us to optimize monetization while maintaining full control over our ad stack." — Jeff Olson, SVP, Revenue Operations, Apartment Therapy Media

The Results: +27% Session Revenue, +11% Ads per Session, and Accelerated Testing Across 20+ Partners

- Up to 27% Session Revenue Uplift

By modernizing its ad stack and optimizing across all touchpoints, AT Media achieved up to 27% uplift in session revenue, driven by better control, visibility, and faster decision-making.

- +11% Ads per Session

Refinements in layout and product monetization strategies, powered by Assertive Yield's data and flexibility, led to an 11% increase in ads per session, without compromising user experience.

- Centralized Optimization and Testing

With a unified platform, AT Media accelerated its testing capabilities across layouts and devices, enabling consistent, data-backed experimentation and faster time to impact.

- Engineering Time Reclaimed

By empowering the yield team to make changes independently, Assertive Yield helped AT Media free up engineering resources to focus on innovation instead of manual maintenance.

Conclusion

This collaboration with Assertive Yield has enabled Apartment Therapy Media to transform its monetization stack into a modern, centralized engine for growth. By unlocking agility, visibility, and advanced optimization capabilities, AT Media continues to deliver exceptional experiences to its readers while maximizing the value of every session.

Assertive Yield is proud to support AT Media's mission, supporting them to stay in control, drive performance, and lead with innovation in the digital publishing space.
