Every Head of Programmatic faces the same challenge: how to optimize the ad stack for higher revenue, without hurting user experience or overloading development resources. For Bauer Media, with 30+ diverse products, each with unique requirements, this was no small task.

The Bauer Media team did it! By partnering with Assertive Yield, they migrated 30+ sites in 30 days, while achieving immediate operational autonomy and significant revenue growth.

THE CHALLENGE

Spencer White, Head of Programmatic at Bauer Media, oversees display and video across its UK publishing and audio portfolio. Bauer's legacy print focus left digital under-resourced, with a weak ad tech setup and vendors that couldn't scale.

To modernize, Spencer ran an RFI/RFP, where Assertive Yield stood out for consolidating tools, simplifying partner integration, and offering stronger tech and support. "The tech and features looked seriously impressive, especially consolidating multiple tools into one," says Spencer.

THE SOLUTION

Bauer Media turned to Assertive Yield's Full Suite, combining client-side and server-side solutions: Yield Manager (more than a wrapper with 11+ solutions), Yield Optimization (dynamic flooring and traffic shaping), and AY Server-Side with integrated dynamic flooring, traffic shaping, and ID solutions.

In just 30 days, 30+ sites across multiple codebases went live with zero downtime and full revenue protection. "Their support made it possible, and a complex migration was delivered successfully." says Spencer White, Head of Programmatic at Bauer Media.

THE RESULTS

- +36.8% Session Revenue [RPM]
- +16.7% Fill Rate
- Teams Autonomy: Changes deploy in hours instead of weeks
- Significant reduction in dev requirement
- Frictionless integration of new demand partners
- Cost Reduction: replacing multiple vendors with one solution

With Assertive Yield, Bauer Media has not only gained flexibility in its ad stack but also removed the limitations that previously restricted demand partner relationships. This freedom has translated directly into stronger partnerships and higher yield, while the platform's capabilities are boosting team productivity.

As Spencer White explains, "With Assertive Yield, we're able to grow at scale with a partner that feels like an extension of our own team. Beyond revenue increase, the platform gives the ops team the freedom to act independently and the devs team the tools to validate changes instantly."
